

Why were the people eager to see Jesus (v.26)?

What did they want Him to do for them?

Do you ever, while on holiday, try to eat as much at the breakfast buffet as possible in order that you won't have to eat again that day?

What's the problem with this?

What kind of food does Jesus tell us to work for (v. 27)?

The people were eager for what Jesus might do for them in the moment, on that day but on what day was Jesus' focus (see v's 39, 40 and 44)?

What is necessary for anyone to have a right relationship with Jesus (v.44)?

If no one can come to a saving and satisfying relationship with Jesus unless the Father draws him or her then can an individual be held accountable for a failure to come?
