Family Service with Breakout Session

Breakout Session – 22nd May

Sexuality in a Sexually Confused World

Our children are growing up in the middle of the new sexual revolution where the world's idea of sex and sexuality is increasingly foreign to a Biblical understanding of God's design for human beings. Although we know what we believe, we often find that hard to communicate clearly to our children.

Join us for our breakout session with Dr Olwyn Mark (Lecturer at Union College, formerly of Love for Life), who will be helping think how to communicate truth to the next generation. Open to everyone, but especially for parents, grandparents, those who work with children and leaders of organisations.
