Luke & Karis Carson write: We've been very happy to welcome a lot of new men into our groups inside prison. It's exciting to see people get to know Jesus through the gospels for the first time. I would ask for your prayers for one particular man in his early 20s. He has opened up and shared a lot about his experiences of gang violence and he is starting to think about issues of peace and forgiveness. Please pray that he would come to God in real repentance and experience forgiveness and grace. Some of the young men in our group could have a huge impact in society, but most importantly we want them to know Jesus as their saviour.
