

Sunday 20st

Henry and Silvia Bell travel today to Thailand for 10 days of conference with fellow mission leaders from around the world. Pray that they might 'hear' well as they listen for the Lord's voice, and to the many leaders they will be interacting with.

Monday 21st

Avisai & Judith Suarez would also appreciate prayers for planning and preparation for their upcoming visit to Mexico. They have a lot of people and churches they would like to visit while there so it will take a bit of planning.

Monday 28th

Avisai & Judith Suarez write: Avisai's Carpentry ministry will start this month. It has taken longer than expected to be able to start so this is very exciting and a nervous time for us as we see how this ministry will go. We pray for God's blessing and that this will be a good channel to help people and really make a difference in their lives practically as well as spiritually. Pray especially for Avisai as he leads this and for Kenneth, Gary and Phil who have been a great help to him over recent months.

Tuesday 29th

Pray for those who have been bereaved in recent days that they will know God's strength and comfort.

Wednesday 30th

Prayer Calendar

Please use this information to pray for our congregation and its ministries every day.

"Let us approach the throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need."

Hebrews 4:1

Tuesday 1st

Luke & Karis Carson write: Please pray for the men we are working with who are at risk of being homeless. Some are approaching the date they will be released from prison and have no options for a place to sleep, some are in the community with jobs but are still finding it almost impossible to find a home. Pray for miracles and that they wouldn't be tempted to turn to crime or drugs in a time of turbulence.

Wednesday 2nd

Robert & Kyla Cuthbert write: Pray for plans for a few different outreaches during the World Cup. Senegal is involved in the tournament, so it brings added interest and lots of opportunities to engage with people and share the gospel.

Thursday 3rd

John & Sarah Kennedy write: Sarah has 3 Khmer Buddhist children in her P5. All 3 are receptive/curious and are being exposed to a lot of Gospel truth. Two boys and a girl. Pray that the seeds will be sown deep.

Friday 4th

Avisai & Judith Suarez write: Please continue to pray for Shine Cafe. We have had new ladies from Columbia and Syria come to the cafe since starting in September. We pray that as they hear Gods word, He will open their hearts and minds to receive Him.

Saturday 5th

Jonathan & Nicola McCracken write: We give thanks for "What's the Story" campaign which has been running each week throughout the churches in the south of Ireland last month. We have recently seen more visitors to the church here in Claremorris. Not directly from the campaign but some people who had received our church leaflet. Pray as we get to know these families.

Sunday 6th

Pray for those who cannot make it out to church due to ill health. Pray that God will bless them as they watch the service online

Monday 7th

Praise God for the many activities that take place in our church week by week.

Tuesday 8th

Pray for the ladies who will attend PW this evening. Pray that they will be blessed by the message they hear from Carolyn Donnelly.

Pray for the many in the congregation who serve God in practical ways within the church, that they will know protection and joy in all they do.

Thursday 10th

John & Sarah Kennedy are traveling overland, by taxi and bus to Bangkok for routine medical checks (8 hours one way). Pray for a safe trip. The driving is better in Thailand but faster.

Remember our elderly and sick friends and pray that they will know God's grace in their lives.

Saturday 12th

Jonathan & Nicola McCracken write: The Calvary Mission Ladies have a get together in Ballina. Pray as we meet up and have some fun and fellowship together. The men folk in Claremorris church are meeting together this morning for a men's Breakfast. Pray for some of the new men in the church as they come along.

Pray for YF as it meets after the evening service. Pray for the young people who will attend that they will grow in fellowship together.

Monday 14th

Luke & Karis Carson write: Give thanks that a couple of men in Pentonville have committed their lives to Jesus. One man for the first time after a lot of thought and consideration, another has come back to his faith in God through hitting rock bottom when he got arrested and found himself in jail. It's a privilege for us to get to see this unfold and we are praying God will protect them and grow their faith.

Tuesday 15th

Pray for Rainbows, Brownies and Guides – both the girls and leaders. Pray that they will be led by the Holy Spirit and for health and safety in all their activities.

Friday 18th

John & Sarah Kennedy write: One of Vivienne's best friends at school is a local girl called Leah (the Khmer often adopt an English name). Leah is definitely interested in Christianity, so pray that Viv would have an impact on her. Leah's parents are very protective, and we are trying to have her around for tea some evening.

Saturday 19th

Pray for our Pastoral Team in all areas of their ministry. Pray for sensitivity and wisdom for every situation in which they find themselves.
